How we work together for an easy claims process

We want to make the claims process straightforward for you. Here are the steps to making a claim, which you can read about in more detail on → page 18.

Make sure you are safe

First things first. Make sure you and other people are safe, and take reasonable steps to prevent further loss or damage.

Key things to look out for in optional cover

Our optional covers can give you protection for things not covered by our standard Home and Contents Insurance. Here are some of the optional covers that might be right for you.

When accidents happen

This Home or Contents Insurance cover protects you for damage from insured events, but sometimes accidents happen. For example, red wine gets spilt on the carpet, fragile items break, or a hot pan burns your benchtop.

If you want cover for accidents like these, you'll need Accidental Damage cover.

Things you take away from home

We take some of our contents with us away from home regularly, for example, handbags, sunglasses, and prams.

If you'd like to be covered for things you take away from home, you'll need Personal Effects cover.

When floods happen

Flood is not automatically covered but you can apply for optional Flood cover.

Steps to take when you first receive your policy documents

Now is a good time to make sure this product is the right one for you. Make sure the information you've provided is correct, and keep your policy documents in a safe place.

Make sure this policy covers what you need it to

We encourage you to read your policy documents carefully. The policy doesn't cover every event or situation, and this document will tell you what is and isn't covered. Understanding the conditions of your cover and the policy's General Exclusions will also help you make an informed decision → page 61.

You can cancel without charge within 21 days

If you change your mind about taking out this policy, and you haven't made a claim, you can receive a full refund if you cancel the policy within 21 days of either:

- the date we issue you a new policy, or
- the date your policy renews.

This is known as your 'cooling-off period'. We count 21 days from the issue of the policy, even if this date is different from the start date.

Make sure the information you've given us is correct

To ensure the information you provided us is correct and complete, please review your Insurance Certificate which includes your Declarations. If any of the information needs to be updated, you must tell us.

Keep your policy documents and other documents in a safe place

After reading the documents carefully, we recommend that you keep them in a safe place for future reference. It's also a good time to start collecting things that will be helpful if you need to make a claim, such as evidence of ownership and photographs of belongings. Keep them all together in a safe place so that you're well prepared at claim time.

Joint policyholders and authorised people

If you have named more than one person as joint policyholders, each person gives authority to the other to change or cancel this policy. We only need a request from one person who is insured to change or cancel your policy.

We'll treat a statement, act, omission, claim, or request by any of the insured people as having been made by all insured people.

You may appoint someone to represent you as an authorised person, such as a family member. We will treat any statement, act, omission, claim or request from them as having been made by you. This authorised person will be able to manage your policy, including changing, amending, or cancelling this policy.

Your obligations and the conditions of your cover

Here are the obligations and conditions you must meet as part of your contract with us.

Your duty not to make a misrepresentation

What you need to tell us

We will ask you questions:

- when you apply for insurance
- before we agree to renew, extend, vary or reinstate your policy.

Your answers will help us decide whether to insure you, and on what terms.

Each question we ask you is important. Please answer each one fully, accurately and honestly.

Your duty to us

You have a legal duty under the Insurance Contracts Act to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation to us. This duty first arises when you enter into an insurance contract with us.

Before we agree to renew, extend, vary or reinstate your policy, we may remind you of your previous answers to our questions. Your duty extends to telling us whether any of this information has changed.

Failing in your duty can seriously affect your cover

If you fail in your duty, we may, where permitted by law, do either or both of these:

- cancel your policy
- reduce the amount we pay you if you make a claim.

If your failure is fraudulent, we may refuse to pay a claim and treat the policy as if it never existed.

❗ Important things you must tell us about during the period of insurance

What you must tell us

- 🗨 During the period of insurance, you must tell us about any of the following things as soon as reasonably possible after you learn any of them are going to occur or have occurred:

Condition of your home:

- your home is no longer in good condition → page 15
- you find out asbestos is present in any part of the roof materials on any buildings at your insured address
- you find out that the main building material of the walls or roof of your home has been noted incorrectly in your Declarations, or that the material will change
- construction, alteration, or renovation work begins that involves removing the roof or external walls, building-in under your home, raising your home, or removing or replacing stumps
- your home will be demolished
- your home is heritage listed or has a heritage overlay.

Change of address:

- you move to a new address (only if you have contents insurance cover).

Change of tenancy:

- there is a change in the rent your tenant must pay (only if you have Landlord Options cover)
- you no longer have a signed written lease agreement with your tenant or you stop using a licensed property manager for your tenanted home (only if you have Landlord Options cover) → page 54.

Occupancy:

- your home will be unoccupied for more than 180 days → page 65
- someone is living at your home without your consent
- there will be a change to how your home is occupied because you're going to rent the home as a landlord, you plan to move back into the home, or you plan to use the home as your holiday home
- any paying guests will stay at your home → page 75
- your home is shared with four or more people who are not your family (only if you have contents insurance cover).

Use of home:

- any part of your home is or will be used for a business, trade, or profession, other than only as a home office.

Change of financing:

- you need to add or remove an interested lender or financier to your policy.

Change of security:

- security devices on your home (including alarms, deadlocks, and window locks) change or are no longer maintained in good working order.

When you tell us about any of these things

We will assess what you have told us against our acceptance criteria. We then may:

- note the updated details on your policy
- propose a variation to your policy, such as a revised premium
- cancel your policy, in which case we will refund what is left of the premium you've paid (except in the case of fraud).

If you fail to tell us about any of these things

If you fail to tell us about any of these things as soon as reasonably possible after you learn any of them are going to occur or have occurred, we may (where permitted by law):

- refuse to pay a claim
- reduce the amount we pay for a claim
- cancel your policy → page 71.

Changing your policy during the period of insurance

Please contact us if you wish to request any changes to your policy during the period of insurance. For example:

- when changing the insured address
- adding optional covers → page 47
- increasing your sum insured → page 67.

Give us all required information at claim time

You must provide us with honest and complete information, documentation and assistance necessary to process any claims, recover any costs, or take any legal action.

If we need to investigate a claim under your name, or in the name of any other person insured by this policy, you must give us all relevant information.

Keep security devices well maintained and activated

If you've told us your home or contents are protected by security devices, you must:

- maintain the security devices in good working order
- activate the security devices and remove the keys from all locks at your home before leaving it unattended for any period.

When your home will be unoccupied

We will provide cover while the home is unoccupied for up to a maximum of 180 consecutive days, subject to the policy terms and conditions.

When your home is unoccupied for more than 60 consecutive days, the following security and safekeeping conditions apply:

- your home must be kept secure, all windows and doors locked and security devices activated
- gardens and lawns must be kept in tidy order and mail, newspapers and deliveries collected regularly
- you must arrange for someone to check inside and outside your home regularly.

If you do not comply with these conditions, we may (where permitted by law):

- refuse to pay a claim
- reduce the amount we pay for a claim
- cancel your policy.

When your home is unoccupied for more than 60 consecutive days and you make a claim, an additional excess of $1,000 will apply.

We will not provide any cover under the policy while your home is unoccupied if your home has been unoccupied for more than 180 days → page 65.

Keep your home, contents, and personal effects in good condition

If you're looking around the house and thinking 'I really should fix this or that', it's important to fix it now.

If you haven't fully fixed any faults or damage to your home or contents that you should have reasonably been aware of, damage from an insured event could be worse than if you had fixed it. This means that if your home is not in good condition at the time of the loss, it may affect your cover.

- ❗ Good condition means your insured home and contents have no defects or faults that pose a risk to what is covered under your policy. Good condition includes but is not limited to the home having:

No leaks, holes, damage, rust, or wood rot in the roof, gutters, windows, floors, fences, or other parts of your home

No damage from or infestation of termites, ants, vermin, or other creatures

A sound and solid structure with no damage to foundations, walls, steps, flooring, ceilings, gates, and fences

No broken or boarded-up windows.

How to make a claim and what happens next

Here’s what happens if you need to make a claim. You can call us or contact us online. You’ll be taken through the process step by step.

Steps to making a claim with us	18
How we settle your claim	19
You will pay an excess on your claim	24

Steps to making a claim with us

Read through the following steps carefully and become familiar with our claims process before you need it.

What you need to do straight away

- Make sure you and your property are safe
- Take care to prevent more loss, damage, or liability
- Report theft or malicious damage to the police
- Contact us as soon as possible on 1800 069 336 and explain what happened, or contact us online
- Tell us if you are covered by a similar insurance product.

Information and permissions you need to give us

- Show us evidence that you own the goods or property that you are claiming on and their value, if we ask for it
- Ask us before arranging repairs or paying anyone to help, unless necessary to prevent further loss
- Arrange a time for us to visit your property to assess or investigate the cause of the loss or damage
- Let us inspect the damaged goods or property before you discard or repair anything
- Send us documents, letters, and emails relating to your claim when we ask for them
- Return any damaged or recovered property that we've paid a claim on, if requested
- And do anything else we may require to assess your claim.

What if you are registered for GST and entitled to a tax credit?

If you are registered for GST and entitled to claim an Input Tax Credit (ITC) on your premium, you need to give us this ITC entitlement each time you make a claim. A full GST entitlement would be a 100% ITC entitlement. If you give us incorrect GST information, we will not be responsible for the GST that you might owe.

A claim payment made for a total loss will be reduced by GST to the extent of your ITC entitlement, if applicable. Other claim payments may also have your ITC entitlement taken into account. Any claim payment made where GST is deducted as described above will be considered to be made in full.

How we settle your claim

This section sets out how we'll settle your claim when something happens to your home or contents.

Claims for your home

If we have accepted a claim for loss or damage to your home, we will aim to repair or rebuild using builders or suppliers in our network. We will cover repair and rebuilding costs up to the limits stated in your Insurance Certificate and this PDS.

In some circumstances, we may be unable to repair or rebuild all or part of the home, and this can impact how we settle the claim → see page 20 When we cannot repair or rebuild.

When we can repair or rebuild

We will have one of our assessors, builders or other suppliers assess your home and provide us with a scope of work to complete the repair or rebuild.

If the assessed scope of work and quote is less than your sum insured and we can complete the work, we will repair or rebuild your home to the same standard, specification, or quality.

If we are able to repair or rebuild:

- we will choose and appoint the builder or supplier and may enter building contracts with them on your behalf
- we will ensure the repaired or rebuilt parts of your home comply with current building regulations and laws
- when it is not possible to repair or rebuild your home with original materials, we will use the nearest equivalent materials available in Australia
- we guarantee all repairs completed by our suppliers → page 21.

If you request a cash settlement

If we are able to repair or rebuild, but we agree to your request to pay you a cash settlement, we will pay you the amount it would have cost us to repair or rebuild, plus any applicable Additional Benefits stated in this PDS.

Examples of when we may agree to pay you a cash settlement include when you:

- have already repaired or rebuilt the damaged area
- have started renovations to the damaged area
- plan to rebuild or renovate to a different standard, specification, or quality
- intend to rebuild in a different location or site.

If the cost to repair or rebuild the home is equal to, or exceeds, your sum insured, then we will pay you the sum insured as stated on your Insurance Certificate, plus any applicable Additional Benefits stated in this PDS.

When we cannot repair or rebuild

We may not always be able to repair or rebuild the damage to your home. This may happen when:

- our supplier's capacity will result in extensive delays, or
- our supplier is unable to provide a warranty for the work, or
- pre-existing damage, maintenance issues, or building defects impact our ability to repair or rebuild, or
- it would be unsafe for our supplier to attend the property.

If this is the case, we will pay you the reasonable amount it would cost you to repair or rebuild the accepted loss or damage to your home to the same standard, specification, or quality → see page 21 How we calculate the reasonable amount.

Claims for your contents

If we have accepted a claim for loss or damage to your contents, we will aim to repair or replace them using a repairer or supplier in our network. We will cover repair or replacement costs up to the limits stated in your Insurance Certificate and this PDS.

In some circumstances, we may be unable to repair or replace your contents, and this can impact how we settle the claim → see page 21 When we cannot repair or replace.

When we can repair or replace

If the assessed cost to repair or replace your damaged contents is less than your sum insured and the other applicable limits stated in this PDS → page 31, we will repair or replace them. The repair or replacement will be to the same standard, specification, or quality as when new.

If we are able to repair or replace, we will:

- choose and appoint the repairer or supplier and may enter contracts with them on your behalf, or
- pay the invoice for the repair or replacement on your behalf, or
- obtain replacement contents on your behalf and provide these to you, or
- provide you with vouchers or gift cards to purchase the replacement item through one of our suppliers.

If you request a cash settlement

If we are able to repair or replace, but we agree to your request to pay you a cash settlement, we will pay you the amount it would have cost us to repair or replace, plus any applicable Additional Benefits stated in this PDS. Examples of when we may agree to pay you a cash settlement include when you:

- no longer need or have use for the contents
- intend to replace the contents with items of a higher cost or standard.

If the cost to repair or replace your contents is equal to, or exceeds, your sum insured or the other applicable limits stated in this PDS → page 31, we will pay you the sum insured or the limit, whichever is less, as stated on your Insurance Certificate or in this PDS.

When we cannot repair or replace

We may not be able to repair or replace all or part of your damaged contents. This may happen when:

- we have no supplier available to do the repair or provide the replacement, or
- our supplier's capacity will result in extensive delays, or
- our supplier is unable to provide a warranty for the work, or
- pre-existing damage or maintenance issues impact our ability to repair or replace.

If this is the case, we will pay you the reasonable amount it would cost you to repair or replace the contents to the same standard, specification, or quality as when new → see page 21 How we calculate the reasonable amount.

How we calculate the reasonable amount

When we calculate the reasonable amount it would cost to repair, rebuild, or replace, we will do either or both of the following:

- arrange for one of our assessors, builders, or suppliers to assess the damage, or
- assess any quote you provide, including reviewing the repair method, labour, and material cost.

Any assessment we do will consider current industry costs and internal and external cost databases. We will also consider any applicable additional benefits available to you.

Guarantee on workmanship

We guarantee the quality of the work and the materials used for all authorised repairs. Our builders hold the required licences to provide services in the states or territories in which they operate.

We may represent you

We may take over and arrange the defence or settlement of any claim for you or anyone covered by your policy. This includes if there is an inquest, inquiry, or criminal proceeding. We will decide how to conduct a defence or settle a claim.

Recovery action

When someone else is responsible for the loss or damage to your property, we may recover from the responsible party. We may do this using your name in any action or legal process against the responsible party, without your consent, and whether or not you have a right to be fully compensated for your loss.

✔ What we will pay for

The most we will pay for any claim for your home, contents, or personal effects is stated in your policy documents.

If we pay for additional benefits as part of your claim, the most we will pay is stated in Additional Benefits for Home and Contents on → pages 41–46.

We will only pay to repair or rebuild the parts of your home or contents items that are damaged or destroyed. You cannot claim to replace undamaged parts of your home or contents, except as otherwise specified in your policy documents.

Cupboards, cabinets or benchtops

We will pay to repair or replace the damaged parts of kitchen cupboards, cabinets and benchtops. We will pay to repair or replace undamaged parts if they are continuously joined to the damaged part and made of the same material.

Internal blinds or curtains, carpets, other floor coverings, or wall coverings

We will pay to repair or replace internal blinds or curtains, carpets, other floor coverings, or wall coverings, but only in the same room, hallway or passageway where the loss or damage occurred. We consider the same room as the area starting and finishing at the nearest walls, doorway, archway, or other opening.

Items that are part of a set

When an item is part of a pair, set, system or collection, we will only pay for repair or replacement of the item that has been lost or damaged. The most we will pay is the value that the item has as a proportion of the combined pair, set, system or collection.

⊗ What we won't pay for

We won't pay:

- to repair or rebuild undamaged property in order to achieve a match with repaired or replaced property
- any additional costs to replace materials that are not damaged
- for any decrease in the value of any pair, set, system, or collection.

If we've agreed to pay your claim as a total loss

If your home or contents or personal effects suffer loss or damage and we have agreed to pay your claim as a total loss, then:

- we will pay you an amount equal to the replacement value of the property lost, stolen or destroyed, or the sum insured in your policy documents, whichever amount is lowest
- you will pay the excess and any remaining premium instalments for the full period of insurance, and we will not refund any premium.

Your cover ends for the home, contents, or personal effects we paid for as a total loss, but any other cover you have with us continues. You can choose to take out a new policy to cover the home, contents, or personal effects that you buy to replace what you've lost.

If we've agreed to pay your claim as a partial loss

A claim for loss or damage to your home or contents or personal effects isn't always for the total sum insured for the cover or item. This is called a partial loss.

Once a partial loss claim is settled, the sum insured stated on your Insurance Certificate remains unchanged for the remainder of the period of insurance. You can choose to increase or decrease the sum insured.

You will pay an excess on your claim

An excess is the amount you must pay when you make a claim. You will pay an excess amount for each incident that results in loss or damage to your home and contents. This may include additional excesses depending on the claim. The excesses that may apply are stated on your Insurance Certificate.

If your claim is for loss or damage to both your home and contents from one incident at one insured address, you will pay the higher of the basic excesses you selected, plus any other applicable excess.

We will tell you whether to pay the excess to a repairer or supplier, directly to us, or whether we will deduct the excess from the amount we pay you.

Your sum insured, premiums, renewals, and cancelling

Here are the nuts and bolts of your policy: the amounts you're covered for, how premiums work, what happens at renewal time, and how your policy can be cancelled.

We will pay up to your maximum sum insured	67
Paying your premium	68
Renewing the policy	69
Cancelling the policy	71

We will pay up to your maximum sum insured

You decide and tell us an amount that is enough to rebuild, repair, or replace your damaged home or your contents. This sum will be stated on your Insurance Certificate and is known as your 'sum insured'. You can use our online calculators to help you establish a sum insured.

For your home, a professional valuer or building contractor can help you decide the cost of rebuilding your home. You should consider:

- any improvements you have made to the home that may add to the costs of rebuilding
- any additional costs associated with rebuilding, such as site works and access restrictions.

For your contents, a dealer or professional valuer can help you calculate the value of items such as jewellery, collections, and art works. Keep your valuations and receipts in a safe place in case we need them to process a claim.

Your sum insured will increase each year

Each year, we will automatically increase the sum insured that is stated on your Insurance Certificate for both your home and contents. We allow for an increase of costs and use industry cost guides as a reference.

For your contents, we do not automatically increase the sums insured for specified contents items, or personal effects items. Review the value of these items regularly to make sure they are sufficiently insured for the cost of replacement.

You can ask us to adjust your sum insured

You can ask us to adjust the sum insured at any time. If we agree, the change that you request may mean that your premium changes.

Review your sum insured for home, contents, specified contents, and personal effects regularly. You are still responsible for checking the sum insured at each renewal, even though we automatically adjust this value. If you have not nominated the correct sum insured, you could be underinsured if you suffer a total loss and we accept your claim.

Paying your premium

We will give you information about when payment is due. You must pay the premium by the due date to have this insurance cover. The total payable includes government charges.

You can pay yearly or by instalments

You can pay once a year, or by instalments. If you choose to pay by instalments, the total premium may be higher and fees will apply. We will tell you what the total yearly and instalment amounts are, so you will know the difference.

The following fees apply:

- Monthly instalment processing fee — 12 payments each year of 66 cents per $100 of premium or part of $100
- Fortnightly instalment processing fee — 26 payments each year of 31 cents per $100 of premium or part of $100.

You need to pay your instalment premium on time to stay covered

If an instalment payment is overdue by 14 days or more, we can refuse to pay a claim.

If an instalment payment is overdue by one month or more, we will cancel your policy automatically without notice.

When an instalment is not paid, we will send you a missed payment notification, which informs you of the date we will cancel your policy if the instalment payment remains unpaid.

How we calculate your premium

The premium we quote is the amount you must pay for this insurance. The premium takes into account factors such as:

- all relevant government charges, taxes, and levies
- any optional covers you choose
- any previous claims
- people who live in your home
- the amount of your excess
- the location and characteristics of your home
- the security features you have
- your nominated sum insured
- any discounts that may apply
- whether you choose to pay by instalments or yearly
- the cost of claims we have paid to other customers and claims we expect to pay in the future
- our cost of doing business and other commercial factors.

We may change these or other factors at any time, and this might affect your premium. The information we collect about these factors may come from the questions we ask you and other sources.

Minimum premiums may apply.

The premium we quote for insurance is at our discretion.

Premium changes of $1 or less

When a change is made to your policy that results in an additional premium or refund of $1 or less:

- if you pay annually, it will not be charged or refunded to your nominated account.
- if you pay by instalment, we will adjust any remaining instalments to account for the amount owing or to be refunded. If the final instalment has already been paid, it will not be charged or refunded to your nominated account.

Renewing the policy

We may offer to renew your policy. If we do, we will let you know in writing at least 14 days before the expiry date that is stated on your Insurance Certificate. We will tell you about any changes to the terms of your policy.

If we do not offer to renew your policy, we will send you a notice in writing.

Your premium might increase on renewal

The offer of renewal will show your new sum insured, the premium, and the excess for the new period. In addition to the factors listed in 'How we calculate your premium' on → page 68, your renewal premium is calculated taking into consideration a number of factors, such as:

- changes to your circumstances, including any claims made
- any amendments you have made, or changes to your sum insured
- external factors such as changes to labour, materials, and reinsurance costs
- any discounts, including those that were previously applied that no longer apply
- last year's premium amount
- changes in applicable government charges, taxes, or levies.

Your new premium may be higher than what you paid for your previous policy.

Check that your information is correct

When you receive a renewal offer, you must check that all the information contained in the renewal offer, including your previous answers to our questions, is complete and accurate. You must tell us about any changes before the start date of the next period of insurance.

For example, please review whether any policy holder or household member has:

- ever been convicted of a criminal offence?
- had an insurance company cancel or refuse to renew insurance in the last 5 years?
- had any thefts or burglaries, or made any insurance claims for home or contents, including personal effects, in the last 5 years?

You must also tell us about any changes that occurred during the period of insurance that you have not yet told us about. Please refer to the section 'Important things you must tell us about during the period of insurance' → page 12.

If your details do change, the premium, excess, and terms and conditions of the policy may also change, or we may no longer be able to insure you.

If you do not comply with your policy obligations to inform us about changes, we may, where permitted by law:

- refuse to pay a claim
- reduce the amount we pay for a claim
- cancel your policy → page 71.

We will use your existing payment information to pay for your new policy

If you accept our offer of renewal and have an automatic payment arrangement with us, we will charge the renewal premium to your nominated bank account or credit card. You can change how you pay your premium by contacting us.

Tell us if you don't want to renew your policy

If you have an automatic payment arrangement with us, you must tell us if you don't want to accept our offer of renewal before the expiry date on your Insurance Certificate.

You can opt out of automatic renewal

You can opt out of our automatic renewal process at any time by contacting us.

Cancelling the policy

You may cancel the policy at any time.

If you decide to cancel this policy:

- within 21 days of the issue or renewal date and you haven't made a claim (during the cooling-off period), you will receive a full refund of the premium you have paid
